OUR CONTRIBUTORS

A member of the faculty of Berea, LUTHER M. AMBROSE is very much interested in rural education and especially the problems of the one-room school. On leave from his regular classes in the department of Education he gave some of his theories a work-out.

GLYN A. MORRIS is director of Pine Mountain Settlement School, Pine Mountain, Kentucky, and chairman of the Executive Board of the Conference of Southern Mountain Workers.

ARTHUR M. BANNERMAN is superintendent of Asheville Farm School, Swannanoa, North Carolina.

EUGENE SMATHERS is the minister of the Calvary Parish, Big Lick, Tennessee.

EUGENE H. RAINEY is director of Evarts Community Church Service Center, Evarts, Kentucky.

GEORGE C. BELLINGRATH is president of Rabun Gap-Nacoochee School, Rabun Gap, Georgia, and a member of the Executive Board of the Conference.

WILLIAM H. WOOTEN is Administrative Assistant in the State Office of the National Youth Administration in Kentucky.

"Snow on Kentucky Ridge" is the second in a series of four seasonal cuts made for Mountain Life and Work by JOHN A. SPELMAN III.

ALVA W. TAYLOR, as notice appears elsewhere in this issue, is the new editor of Mountain Life and Work, and Executive Secretary of the Conference of Southern Mountain Workers.

HOPE CALER BROWN is one of a group of carvers in the Brasstown, North Carolina, community.

WALTER W. SIKES, chairman of the committee in charge of planning the program for the 1942 Knoxville Conference, is in the department of Bible and Philosophy at Berea College.
